How long will it take?

How long it will take from us being instructed until completion of the mortgage/remortgage will depend upon a number of factors, the average process will take between 6 and 8 weeks depending upon how quickly we receive your written Mortgage Offer from your Lender.

The precise stages involved in the mortgage/remortgage of a freehold residential property vary according to the circumstances. Some key stages would be:-

- a. taking your instructions and giving you initial advice
- b. obtaining copies of your deeds and documents from the Land Registry
- c. obtaining searches
- d. receiving your Offer of Mortgage in writing from your Lender
- e. reporting to you on all of the above matters and arranging for you to call to sign the Mortgage Deed
- f. arranging for a redemption figure to be obtained if you have an existing mortgage and for all monies needed to be received from your Lender and you to complete
- g. completing the remortgage
- h. dealing with application for registration at HM Land Registry

Our fees and timescales assume that:-

- i. this is a standard transaction where no unforeseen matters arise including for example (but not limited to) a defect in title which requires remedying prior to completion or the preparation of additional documents ancillary to the main transaction.
- ii. the transaction is concluded in a timely manner and no unforeseen complications arise.
- iii. no Indemnity Policies are required, additional third party fees may apply if Indemnity Policies are required and additional administration costs in respect of each Indemnity Policy.
