We are committed to providing a high quality legal service to all our clients. When something goes wrong we need you to tell us about it. This will help us to improve our standards.

What will happen next?

1. We will contact you to acknowledge your complaint, either by telephone or in writing. Your complaint will be dealt with by the Client Care Partner, Whose name has been notified to you in your terms of business letter or information sheet sent to you when you first give us instructions, or if the complaint is about the Client Care Partner it will be dealt with by the Senior Partner. We will endeavour to contact you to acknowledge receipt of your complaint within two working days of receiving it and we will send you a copy of our Complaints Policy.
2. The Client Care Partner will discuss the matter as soon as it comes to his/her knowledge with the Fee Earner to see whether it is possible to resolve the complaint informally and speedily over the telephone. If it is not possible to do this then we will record your complaint in our central register and open a separate file for it.
3. The Client Care Partner may ask the member of staff who acted for you to reply to your complaint within seven days. The Client Care Partner will consider the reply and the information provided within that reply. If this is not capable of resolving the complaint then the Client Care Partner will consider the file in full and provide you with a full and detailed response within 56 days of notification from you that the complaint has not been resolved.
4. The Client Care Partner may then telephone you to discuss it, invite you to a meeting or write to you with a full and detailed reply. The Client Care Partner will let you have his/her suggestion for resolving the complaint in this letter.

5. At this stage if you are still not satisfied you may contact or refer the matter to the Legal Ombudsman. If you refer your matter to the Legal Ombudsman the Client Care Partner will, if requested, attempt to conciliate the complaint.
